

Millicent Gappell Book Signing, Monday, May 14th

On Mother's Day, Millicent will be performing a special concert at Red Rocks Center For The Arts in Fairmont, MN at 3pm. On May 14, she will be signing copies of her new tabletop art book, The Art Of Myths And Music at the Roseville Barnes & Noble in the HarMar mall in Roseville at 6pm.

Millicent Gappell may soon join the ranks of Louis Comfort Tiffany, Art Deco artist René Lalique, and the artisans of Baccarat, as one of the world's leading glass artists. And Gappell's particular focus on Greco-Roman myths spearheads a resurgence of interest in mythology and its art, that stretches from Manhattan's Museum of Art to Hollywood's newest mythology-focused mega films.
